Dear Students, The goal of all formal education is to make the student self-sufficient in all aspects. In a country like India where the population has crossed the one billion mark, the race for jobs is becoming tougher and more competitive. Degrees are no more the only benchmark for employability.

Students need to be proficient in soft skills and have the confidence to showcase them. An overall personality development will depend upon the student's participation on diverse platforms, provided by the college. This enhances creativity, communication skills, group compatibility, interpersonal skills, management skills and networking skills. These skills empower students and make them resilient. One such platform is the college magazine and those who availed this opportunity are showcased here. We hope more and more students will feel motivated to grab this opportunity that facilitates their comprehensive growth. Happy Reading!!
